FAQ

Will I still get visits from the MJF Sales team? Yes. We will not be reducing visits. This is an additional service, to make it easier for our customers to find the information they need, immediately and without waiting for an e-mail response... this will be valuable during busy periods. MJF Sales already receive regular e-mails between visits, asking for urgent orders, especially after a busy weekend. Quite often, asking if the items meet minimum order.

Why can't I see all the companies MJF Sales work with? This may be that MJF Sales don't represent those brands in your area. If you notice a missing brand you think should be on there, please let us know and we will add it immediately.

I can't find the all information I require, can this be added? Yes. MJF Sales want this site to be as useful as possible for their customers; please feedback anything you would like us to include. Any other feedback/amendment suggestions from users is also welcomed.

We will be adding more FAQ's , so please let us have any questions you may have.
